ARREST

Of Three Men Who Were Charged With Robbing Harry Robertson, a Painter.

This morning about 1 o'clock Patrolman Glasmeier found Harry Robertson a painter, employed by the Roesser Decorating company asleep in front of Frank Showman's grocery on West Main street. Not long before this he was seen in company with Tom Donovan and two negroes, and suspicion pointed to them as the men who had committed the robbery. A revolver was also in Robertson's possession earlier in the evening. When found by Glasmeier everything had been taken from his pockets.

Later Donovan and the two negroes were arrested at Gus Kern's restaurant by Lieutenant Sutton and Officer Callan, and taken to the city prison going into the station at the gate on the west side, along the B. & O. tracks.

NEW RULE

Established by Interurban Company is Not Liked by the People of Granville.

Granville, O., June 20—The Newark and Granville street railway company has recently issued an order that no round trip tickets between Newark and Granville be sold on the cars hereafter but that they must be purchased at the depot, either in Granville or Newark. This order, it seems, has caused a good deal of dissatisfaction with the traveling public, as it is claimed that it leads to great inconvenience and hardship for the people using the road between Newark and Granville. Special complaint in regard to the early cars that leave Granville is made. It is claimed that the ticket office is not always open and that it is impossible to purchase tickets. The people are stirred up over the matter and the town council has been appealed to in the hope that it can obtain more favorable action on the part of the company. A meeting of the council will be taken in the matter looking to the reconstruction of the new rule, and the restoraiton of the old plan of selling round trip tickets on the cars or in some other way properly accommodating the people without putting them to such inconvenience as it is claimed the new rule does.

MR. FLANAGAN

Former Newark Hotel Man Batted so Well That a New Castle Poet Got Busy.

Martin Flanagan, who for years was one of the proprietors of the Bolton House here, has done something over at New Castle, Pa., that has made him a hero with all the baseball "fans." One fellow has written a poem about it. But let the New Castle News tell its own story:

The Elks, who have been practicing for their ball game with the East Liverpool lodge, have run up against a snag. As a result of the fierce game put up by some of the team, notably Arrow, Eckert, Neff and Flanagan, they have been approached by emissaries of the major leagues and flattering inducements offered them to play with the Pitsburg, New York and Chicago. Every effort is being made to retain them and it is hoped they will be in their places in the game at East Liverpool on the 3rd. The boys practice every evening at the ball grounds. Go out and see them. The playing last night was fine, one particularly brilliant play moving the poet laureate of the club to write the following:

When Flanagan Lined It Out.

(By the Poet on First Base.)

The setting sun shone 'thwart the field,
The Elks' ball game was on;
And neither side a point would yield—
Each batted for a run.
When suddenly the air was rent—
Up went a deafening shout,
As Martin Flanagan went to bat,
To try and line one out

Then all looked on with baited breath,
(And some lapped up some bait)
As Mart hitched up his gallusses,
And stood beside the plate.
"Strike one" called out the umpire,
Mart made an awful clout
And muttered, "Tho' the heavens fall,
I'll certainly line it out."

The curving sphere came on again,
And this time Mart was there.
He drove the ball clean o'er the fence;
It fairly burned the air.
The game was won! His brother Elks
Hailed him with joyous shout.
Some day they'll make him senator
Because he lined it out.

P S—We can't make him President because he was born in Ireland.

THE COURTS

SUIT FOR SLANDER FILED IN THE COMMON PLEAS.

George L. Miller and Miss Rex Begin Action Against George Sprague. Other Cases.

Two sensational petitions were filed in the county clerk's office this afternoon by Fulton & Fulton for their clients, George L. Miller and Ethel Rex. George B Sprague is made the defendant in both cases. The plaintiffs claim that they were damaged to the amount of $10,000 each by certain slanderous words spoken by the defendant on the ninth day of May.

Both petitions recite that George B Sprague on the 9th of May and in the presence of George L. Miller and a number of other persons, accused him with having improper relations with his stenographer, meaning Miss Ethel Rex. Other strongly worded statements are alleged to have been made by the defendant.

Miss Rex claims that her reputation and good name have been damaged and that her business as a stenographer has been ruined. She claims damages to the amount of $10,000.

Mr. Miller asks damages of the same amount because of injuries caused by the same remarks. Miss Rex states that she is dependent on her occupation as a stenographer to support herself and that before the alleged slander was made she did considerable stenographic work for other persons than Mr. Miller. It is this business that she claims has been ruined. She is still employed as a stenographer at the greenhouse of George L Miller.

It is coming to be an accepted doctrine among leading men in this country that one of the greatest causes of our prosperity has been the absolute free trade between our states and territories. We have an area greater than all Europe, and natural resources as great and diverse as Europe, but while European commerce has been hampered by tariffs and taxes at boundary lines, our domestic trade has been free. This fact, coupled with the fertility of our soil and the opportunity for settlement, gives the explanation of our national advance despite the burdens of tariffs and trusts. But we are reaching the point when foreign trade is now esential to our welfare, and wise men of all parties see the necessity of seeking it. Though they disagree to some extent as to methods, they all see the obstacles of the tariff wall.

A Massillon hotel has had occasion to draw the color line and Massillon people in certain circles are highly incensed. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, a colored clergyman, occupied the pulpit at the First Methodist church in that city Sunday and at noon attempted to enter the dining room of the Conrad hotel in company with a small coterie of church people. He was politely but firmly told that he would have to go elsewhere. Remonstrances availed not and the party finally adjourned to a neighboring restaurant. The proprietor of the hotel is a well known Republican.

At Caldwell the Republican convention to nominate a candidate for a Representative, from Morgan and Noble counties was held, each county having twenty-four votes. A SIMPLE QUESTION.

Newark People Are Requested to Honestly Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of Newark more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the Union? Read this:

Mrs. George Graff, of No. 25 Spencer street, says: "I had had a terrible bad oack, which successfully resisted all efforts made to relieve it in the way of medicines and plasters. It was just across the loins, where the greatest strain falls, so that I could not get up when I was down, I awoke in the morning scarcely able to lift my body. As I moved about at my household work I was often in actual torture. For three months I suffered all the time, until one day a neighbor gave me a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills: I took them and the benefit was so apparent that I sent to Crayton's drug store and procured a box. Before very long I discarded the plasters, the kidney secretions looked clear and natural, and I had not a pain in my head or back."

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Plainly Indicated for the Democraric State Convention--The Gathering In August Will Be Marked With More Enthusiasm Than Any Event of Recent Years.

Columbus June 20—If early engagements at the Columbus hotels are an indication of a large attendance at the approaching Democratic state convention there is no doubt that the assembling of the Democratic hosts in this city next August will be marked by the greatest enthusiasm apparent on a similar occasion in many years. Important reservation of headquarters were made nearly three months in advance of the convention. Mayor Johnson and the Cuyahoga delegation will be at the Neil House. The Hamilton county delegation has reserved a large number of rooms at the Great Southern. The Democratic state central committee will be quartered at the Chittenden. Hon. John L. Zimmerman of Springfield has engaged headquarters at both the Neil and Great Southern and his friends from Clark county and elsewhere will be strongly in evidence at all the hotels. While Mr. Zimmerman denies the soft impeachment suggested by a recent dispatch from Springfield announcing his candidacy for the nomination for governor, the fact that he has made elaborate preparations for convention week in Columbus would certainly seem to justify the prevailing conviction that he is a sure enough candidate and will so announce himself over his own signature in due time.

Congressman Harvey C. Garber will be in Columbus the greater part of the time from now until the convention meets. He is generally understood to represent Mayor Johnson's interests and if this is true and Garber speaks sincerely—which there is no reason to doubt—Mr. Johnson will not be a candidate for either governor or senator and will withdraw if any enthusiastic follower should present his name in the convention.

The committee consisting of Hon. George B Okey of this city, Senator Hurst of New Philadelphia and Representative Stage of Cleveland, appointed to consider the proposed constitutional amendments as a subcommitte representing the Democratic state central committee, has completed its report, which will be submitted to the committee on resolutions of the state convention. While nothing official is given out regarding the report, it is understood that it will favor the amendments conferring the veto power on the governor, the repeal of the double liability clause relating to stockholders in corporations, and the classification of property for purposes of taxation A less reliable prediction is to the effect that the report will also favor the constitutional amendment providing for one representative in the legislature from each county regardless of population. There will be some question, however, as to the method in which voters shall express themselves on the proposed amendments. The Longworth law permits a state convention of a political party to take action on a constitutional amendment and to have placed on the ballot under the party ticket a vote for or against, as the convention may direct. Under this statute the Republican convention this year approved three of the five amendments submitted by the legislature to be voted on next November. Accordingly the word "yes" will be printed under each of these amendments on the Republican ticket and the word "no" will be omitted. Thus every Republican who votes for the state ticket will also vote for the three amendments whether he desires to do so or not. There is serious opposition to having the Democratic convention adopt the same policy, notwithstanding it will certainly indorse some amendments.

STORIES OF THE FLOOD.

The recent flood in eastern Kansas has been replete with incidents, tragic, heroic, humorous and even comic. Here are a few of them from the Kansas City Star:

An Armourdale man who visited that town said that he had seen an old hen with a brood of little chicks quartered on top of a piano. A rat and a duck, he said, also used the instrument as a refuge. The refugees had nothing in common, however, and each kept aloof from the others. The hen mother, mistress of the top of the piano, kept a close watch on her little ones. She would not permit them to go too near the edge of their roost. One of the brood, a precocious little black feathered rooster, kept the old hen busy. He would first trot to one end of the piano, then to the other. The duck and rat were seated on the keyboard, and it seemed to delight the little black chick to lean over the edge and chirp at the rat, seated sad eyed and lonely and watching the water which had made him take to the tall spot. The old hen kept the other two members of the animal kingdom at a safe distance, and the duck, whenever the rat moved around at his end of the keyboard, quacked loudly.

The Armourdale man says he stayed at the spot for fully an hour watching the strange company. He took the duck in his boat, but the chicken family and the rat resisted all efforts to rescue them.

People who were in the west bottoms witnessed a curious spectacle one afternoon. Borne down on the current beneath the "L" road viaduct floated what appeared to be the body of an army nurse. It rested quietly on the crest of the stream, with apron undisturbed and the insignia of the Red Cross society plainly visible upon one arm. Upon closer inspection the figure proved to be an advertisement, life size, which had stood in front of a grocery store.

When the water in the east bottoms had receded enough the proprietor of a confectionery store entered his building. He waded out and was busy among the wreckage when a man came up in a boat. The man tied up to a post and entered the building. He smiled as he saw the remains of a soda fountain and climbed over the wreckage to one of the stools before it.

"Gimme a strawberry ice cream soda," he said.

A man in a boat, passing near one of the big mills in the east bottoms, saw one of his old friends in the office window.

"Say, Charley," he said, "what are you doing in the office?"

His friend looked at him disdainfully and answered:

"Go on and don't talk to me. I was a common mill hand like you once, but I'm bookkeeper now."

He was trying to save the books of the company.

There was a good example of "nerve" in the case of Walter S. Dickey. He came home from Salt Lake City and asked how much of his Kansas City plant was gone. "About half of the building is down, and the loss will be about $30,000," he was told. After transacting some little matters of business he sent a check for $1,000 to the relief committee and, calling one of his clerks, said, "Let's go and see what we have left of the plant."

A negro rescued a kitten from the top of a one story saloon building near Ninth and Mulberry streets in Kansas City. The little thing had purred piteously all afternoon and attracted the attention of every one who passed by on the "L" road viaduct. Several ineffectual efforts to rescue it were made before the negro finally succeeded in bringing it to the ground. This he accomplished with a long pole on the end of which he nailed a piece of board. A saucer of water was placed on the board. When the contrivance was raised to the roof the kitten walked on the board to the saucer and was then drawn safely to the street. The rescuer placed the kitten beneath his arm and said he would keep it as a souvenir of the flood.

Many acts of heroism were seen among the women of Argentine, a Kansas City suburb. In many instances they were the last to leave the homes, and with the strength of men many of them waded through water waist deep, carrying household goods to places of safety. At one place a woman was seen with a child under each arm and a large bundle of clothing balanced on her head, wading toward the high ground. A well dressed man rushed into the muddy water and assisted her to the shore.

A tragic comedy was that of John Ray, a negro, who stripped and swam out into the flood to rescue a hog that belonged to a friend of his. The hog stood on the roof of a floating shanty. When Ray reached the shanty he made an effort to get the brute from the roof, but was unable to do so. In his endeavor to rescue the hog Ray suddenly sank beneath the water and was drowned.

Tea In Paraguay.

When the natives of Paraguay drink tea they do not pour it from a teapot into a cup, but fill a goblet made out of a pumpkin or gourd and then suck up the hot liquid through a long reed. Moreover, the tea which they use is altogether different from that which comes from China, being made out of dried and roasted leaves of a palmlike plant which grows in Paraguay and southern Brazil. The natives say that this tea is an excellent remedy for fever and rheumatism, and chemical tests which have been made by German physicians seem to show that there is good ground for this statement. Certain it is that tea is widely used throughout Paraguay in cases of illness and that, so far as has been observed, the effects produced by it are highly beneficial.

Huxley on the Bishops.

Among the "Essays of John Fiske" are some delightful reminiscences of Huxley, at whose house Mr. Fiske was a frequent visitor during his stay in London. Here is one of these charming and illuminative stories:

"In an examination on anatomy a very callow lad got the valves of the heart wrong, putting the mitral on the right side, but Huxley took compassion on him with the remark: 'Poor little beggar! I never got them correctly myself until I reflected that a bishop was never in the right!'"

The Heart.

The human heart is practically a force pump about six inches in length and four inches in diameter. It beats 70 times per minute, 4,200 times per hour, 100,800 times per day and 36,792,000 times per year and 2,575,440,000 times in seventy years, which is "man's appointed threescore years and ten." At each of these beats it forces 2½ ounces of blood through the system, 175 ounces per minute, 656¼ pounds per hour or 703 tons per day. All the blood in the body, which is about thirty pounds, passes through the heart every three minutes. This little organ pumps every day what is equal to lifting 122 tons one foot high or one ton 122 feet high—that is, one ton to the top of a forty yard mill chimney or sixteen persons seven score each to the same height. During the seventy years of a man's life this marvelous little pump, without a single moment's rest, night or day, discharges the enormous quantity of 178,850 tons of blood.

Fifth Address Will be Delivered by Rev. H. N. Miller at Sunday Afternoon's Meeting.

Tomorrow afternoon the Men's Meeting will be addressed by Rev. H. Newton Miller of the Church of Christ. Mr. Miller will deliver the fifth of a series of addresses on the great religious leaders of the past. A very strong interest has been manifested ever since this series was begun, and owing to the interest shown in these able and instructive addresses by the pastors of the city, the attendance at the meeting has kept up to the average attained during the winter. Rev. Miller's address tomorrow afternoon will be on Alexander Campbell. The choir of the Church of Christ will assist in the song service and will render the following special numbers:

The House of Many Mansions, duet and chorus, Misses Pearl Pawney, Katie Burke and choir.

Calvary, by Gabriel, solo and chorus, Miss Alvah Hayes and choir.

The meeting will be held at the usual hour, 3:30 p. m. in Taylor Hall and every man in the city is cordially invited to attend.

There may be others who have good books at home on their shelves who would be willing to place them in the Y. M. C. A. library where if they are good interesting stories, they are read eagerly by the boys and young men of the Association.

Some fiendish printer is my secret foe

He has a trick that fills me up with woe
And oaths galore.
I wrote a sonnet to my lady's hair
And said that "only with it can compare

This made me sore.

A thrilling romance, too, I penned one day,

But helmet off because he once did say,

That made me rage.

And forthwith to the editor I wrote,
With angry pen,
Correcting the mistake in a brief note
Of how and when
'Twas printed, yet an added horror smote,
As over the correction I did gloat;

I was mad then.

Could I but have this wretch to work my will

Hats Off In the Elevator.

"Simplex is the most punctilious fellow I ever met. He never forgets the little amenities of his school of courtesy. He stepped into an elevator car the other day in which was a boy with two dressmakers' dummies. Just as his foot touched the floor the elevator fell clear down to the basement. And what do you suppose Simplex did as he crawled out from beneath the debris of the car and caught sight of those dummies?

MISS MONIE BOWEY,

No. 38 Perry Street, DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. I have never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

MONIE BOWEY.

Miss Monie Bowey.

WINE OF CARDUI is one medicine that should always be kept on hand in every home for immediate use when female weakness first makes its appearance. Miss Bowey's painful and dangerous accident would not have resulted so seriously had she taken Wine of Cardui promptly.

Wine of Cardui makes women more womanly by curing their weakness and making them stronger. Wine of Cardui cured Miss Bowey. As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for yourself, your sister, your daughter or your mother? Can you think of a more acceptable present to give your friend than a bottle of this medicine which will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is to rid yourself of this pain. If your daughter, mother, sister or friend is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

Wine of Cardui is adapted to women at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her strength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small cost.

Your druggist will sell you a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Secure the medicine today. Take it in the privacy of your home. Relief will come to you as surely as you take it.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

NOT COLLEGE WOMEN.

Mary Mapes Dodge was trained by tutors.

Jeannette Gilder left school at fourteen and plunged into writing.

Gertrude Atherton, the novelist, got her training at private schools.

Margaret E. Sangster got most of her training in private schools and her mother's well stocked library.

There were no colleges when Marion Harland (Mrs. Terhune) was a young woman, and she was educated by tutors under the direction of her father.

Mary Wilkins Freeman, writer of New England novels, graduated from a high school when in her teens, and all her subsequent training has been self acquired.

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"YOUNG WOMEN:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful."—NETTIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Painful Periods

are quickly and permanently overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The above letter is only one of hundreds of thousands which prove this statement to be a fact. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality,—if it is painful something is wrong. Don't take narcotics to deaden the pain, but remove the cause—perhaps it is caused by irregularity or womb displacements, or the development of a tumor. Whatever it is, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is guaranteed to cure it.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Details of Another Case.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and carelessness is the cause of most of the sufferings of women. I believe that if we properly understood the laws of health we would all be well, but if the sick women only knew the truth about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they would be saved much suffering and would soon be cured.

"I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me for years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to rectify. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me completely, and I am now enjoying the best of health, and am most grateful, and only too pleased to endorse such a great remedy."—MISS JENNIE L. EDWARDS, 604 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

Cold Grub

You may get plenty of exercise and at the same time your stomach and bowels will get out of fix. You wonder why—It's easy. You eat a cold meal in the middle of the day, wash it down with hot coffee or cold beer, finishing off with a lot of indigestible pastry and go back to work. If you will take a dose of every night, it will unload your stomach and bowels and you will soon be able to eat anything without suffering.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

W. E. Oswalt, of Ottumwa, Ia., writes under date of April 1, 1901: "I will take this means to inform you of the benefits I have received from using your Syrup Pepsin. I have been troubled for three years with my stomach, in fact could hardly keep down anything I could eat, and had spent between $100 and $200 with doctors, without getting relief. One day I saw Syrup Pepsin advertised and as I had tried everything else, I gave Syrup Pepsin a trial, and after the first dose, I could eat without nauseous feeling. I have recommended Syrup Pepsin to a number of persons who used it with entire satisfaction. I will add that a friend stated he would have been willing six months ago to part with a 400 acre farm for the relief he has obtained."

TRIFLING WITH YOUR HEALTH

Is like Playing with a loaded Gun. If you have Kidney Trouble attend to it at once.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys or bladder are diseased. Take a bottle or glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, if it is pale or discolored, ropy or stringy, there is something wrong with the Kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Chronic Constipation, and the sicknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night, and puts an end to the scalding pain when passing urine.

The Rev. Henry P. Miller, pastor Baptist Church, Spartenburg, S. C., writes:

"For years I suffered with Kidney, liver and heart troubles, swimming in the head, dull headache and numbness of the limbs. Physicians prescribed for me and I took different medicines, but none of them did me any good. But Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me in about two weeks."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

Asking Questions of the Cuckoo.

A curious legend regarding the cuckoo is found among the Danes, which, with some modifications, is likewise current in many parts of Germany, in England and the north of Europe. When in early springtime the voice of the cuckoo is first heard in the woods, every village girl kisses her hand and asks the question, "Cuckoo, cuckoo, when shall I be married?" and the old folks inquire, "Cuckoo, cuckoo, when shall I be released from this world's cares?" The bird in answer continues singing "Cuckoo" as many times as years will elapse before the object of their desires will come to pass.

But as some old people live to an advanced age and many girls marry late in life the poor bird has so much to do in answering the questions put to her that the building season goes by; she has no time to make her nest, but lays her eggs in that of the hedge sparrow.

Why a Boiled Lobster Is Red.

In all crustaceans, as, indeed, in almost everything in nature, there is a certain per cent of iron. Upon boiling the lobster is oxidized. The effect is largely due also to the percentage of muriatic acid which exists naturally in the shell. The chemical change which takes place here is almost similar to that which occurs in the burning of a brick. In boiling a lobster its cost ceases to be a living substance, and to a certain extent it takes a new character.

It is as a brick would be after burning. This effect can also be produced by the sun, but necessarily not so rapid, as the heat of that luminary, although more intense, is not concentrated sufficiently to produce the result. The sun also exercises a bleaching influence which consumes the oxide almost as fast as it is formed, leaving the shell white or nearly pure lime.

WEDDING

Of Miss Kate Faran and Mr. John Eshelman at St. Francis de Sales Church.

One of the prettiest June weddings of the season was that solemnized on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales church by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, the assitant pastor. The beautiful and impressive nuptial ceremony of the church, united Mr. John Eshelman, a popular plumber and Miss Katie Faran an estimable young lady of this city. The groom was attended by his best man, Stewart Caffee, a brother plumber, and the bride by Miss Kate Fitzsimmons, an intimate friends.

After the ceremony the parties went to the home of the bride on South Fifth street where many friends awaited their arrival. After congratulations all partook of a toothsome bridal supper. Only the relatives and immediate friends were the guests. The out of town guests were Mrs. Mary Fitzsimmons, sister of the bride, and two children, of Pittsburg. The aged father and pioneer citizen, Mr. Matthew Faran, during the day executed a deed for a large house and lot and delivered it to his daughter as a wedding gift. The other presents received by the happy couple are useful and valuable. The groom is an honorable and industrious young man connected with the E H Everett glass factory and in every way worthy of the bride he won. The bride is an excellent Christian young lady of many charms, possessing many fine traits of character. Mr. and Mrs. Eshelman have the well wishes of a host of friends.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Straw buttons stud the lace on handsome imported hats.

Effective touches of gold and silver appear on hats and dresses.

Among the newest things in parasols are those of red moire silk with black dots.

White embroidered pique stocks with embroidered dots in color are among the chic things.

In carrying out the fashionable grape designs in dress garnitures the small crochet buttons are effectively used.

Narrow stitched linen or silk belts are rivals of the leather belts for tailored costumes and have the most part a simple metal buc ening.

For those who choose never to wear shirt waists on the street even in hot weather there are coats of thin silk, pongee and shantung. The taffeta coats are short and loose and admit of coolness.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Work on the world's fair grounds at St. Louis is being rapidly pushed.

The Educational and Electricity buildings are complete, each on its island.

Mexico is the first of the foreign nations to complete its government building, but the rest are vigorously pushing on.

The 1,180 acres are all fenced in. The grand basin has been scooped out and the system of lagoons is almost finished.

Not Superstitious.

Mr. Hopeford—The date you have set for our wedding comes on Friday. Friday is supposed to be an unlucky day.

Mrs. Lakeside (from the west)—So I've heard; but it can't be any more unlucky than the other days. I've tried all the rest—New York Weekly.

No Use For It Himself.

"Do you take this internally?" asked the customer, as he put the bottle in his pocket and took his change.

"Me!" said the druggist's new assistant. "Great Scott, no! I sell it."—Stray Stories.
